Receipts From Fire Company Celebration Over $13,000; Make Complete Report Later

The Gettysburg fire company grossed $13,046.66 on its recent celebration of the 87th anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg, James S. Shenk, co-chairman of the general committee, reported Wednesday night at the regular July meeting of the firemen held at Benner's Grove.

No report was given on the amount of the disbursements in connection with the five-day celebration, which opened June 30 and continued through July 4. The report was only a partial one, with additional amounts to be received from various sources. Car receipts thus far totaled $3,660.85; town solicitations, $1,982.05; county solicitations, $760.38; contributions from merchants, $442, and proceeds from the festival on the recreation field, $6,201.38.

Express Thanks
Mr. Shenk thanked those whose efforts in any way contributed to the success of the affair, mentioning particularly the women who assisted in the food tent at the recreation grounds. "If it had not been for their assistance, I would not be able to make this kind of a report," Shenk said. The committee was given authority to arrange an affair for the entertainment of these women in recognition of their services. A grant donated by George Lazos of the F and T restaurant was acknowledged and the secretary was directed to send a letter of thanks.

Plan Permanent Site
The thanks of the firemen were also extended to The Gettysburg Times and the Hanover Evening Sun. Thanks were also extended to Sgt. John F. Rues and Sgt. James A. Parks for their assistance to Col. Alfred E. McKenney, marshal of the July 4th parade, and Richard Cole, parade chairman. A letter was received from Mrs. Jean Duff, wife of Gov. James A. Duff, for the courtesies extended Gov. and Mrs. Duff and their party when they attended a buffet supper at the Hotel Gettysburg Sunday, July 2, and the concert by the Second Army band at the high school athletic field Sunday evening. Mrs. Duff's letter commended the firemen highly for their celebration.

Here And There

News Collected At Random

All Adams counties certainly must be looking forward with considerable enthusiasm to the swiftly approaching observance of the 150th anniversary of the founding of this, the first county in the great Keystone state... the Sesqui-Centennial celebration.

For many months a number of committees have been doing the spadework for the forthcoming event. The countless minute details are rapidly shaping up the "big party." From now on things of greater magnitude will be tackled and soon the words of "mission completed" will be sounded.

Almost before we know it the celebration will be upon us.

One thought has suggested itself in which almost every family can participate, do its little share to make this the biggest observance in years. That is a "return to Adams county" movement of former residents, relatives and friends of those who now reside in the county.

Nearly every family in the county has one or more relatives, close friend or acquaintance who would enjoy returning here for this grand occasion. They would appreciate an invitation from you to be your guest during the forthcoming celebration, attend the Sesqui-Centennial events and otherwise enjoy an old fashioned homecoming.

Then, too, there would be the added incentive for them to return here and meet their former neighbors, renew old acquaintances and be made to feel that they are a real part of the Sesqui-Centennial observance.

The Gettysburg Times would like to know the names of these visitors... to record them in our news columns. Our subscribers would be interested in learning who are "returning home" for this big occasion.

We suggest that you extend your invitations now.

Remember the dates of the Sesqui... August 30 through September 4.

And be sure to tell us who's coming.

Begin Shooting Church Film In Arendtsville Next Week

Residents of the Arendtsville area today were searching for clothing they wore in 1924-25 and 1929-30 in order to be in proper costume for a motion picture to be made of the borough.

The picture, to be entitled "For Good or Evil," is being made at a cost of about $60,000 by the United Lutheran church in America for the Department of Stewardship.

Shooting is scheduled to begin about July 20, with a cast of actors to arrive at that time to play the principal parts in the church film. Arendtsville residents will play the minor roles and provide the background for the cinema production to be taken in the upper county borough.

Find Old Autos

While search for clothing of the required years is being made in nearly every attic in the community, the town was able to lay its hands quickly on one requirement of the film, 1929 automobiles. The scenes of the picture will show the life of a small town man from his childhood to his adult years, with Arendtsville being the town in which he is supposed to live. To keep the picture authentic, autos of the proper years will have to be on the Report U.S. Superfortress Shot Down By Red Fighters; Ground Troops Dig In Today

50 Superforts Plaster Key Enemy Base With 500 Tons Of Bombs In Huge Air Blow

By RUSSELL BRINES

(Associated Press Tokyo Bureau Chief Representing The Allied Press)

Tokyo, Friday, July 13 (AP)—Nearly 50 B-29 Superfortresses plastered a key North Korean military target with 500 tons of bombs today in the mightiest single air blow of the Korean campaign.

The mission inaugurated mass precision bombing by two groups of Superforts rushed here from their U. S. west coast bases.

World War II trained crews flew the four engine bombers from two far Eastern bases through rain and mist for the largest mass foray of the campaign. The target was a railroad center north of the 38th parallel.

All of the planes and their eager, youthful veterans returned safely without meeting opposition on the daylight raid.

8 Days To Deliver

It took exactly eight days to deliver this new punch—from the date overseas orders were first delivered to the release of bomb bays. In that time the men, their planes and most of their equipment were moved 8,000 miles and prepared for an air blow that meant a round trip of more than 1,500 miles.

Air officers said this proved the speed with which strategic bombing assignments could be carried out throughout the world.

One of the aircraft commanders, Lt. James T. Patrick of Carnation, Wash., said it differently: "This will make Uncle Joe sit up and take notice."

I was in Patrick's plane on an assignment representing the combined Allied Press. But a few miles after granting our plane—and its 20,000 pounds of bombs—off the ground, we had to turn back with a faulty motor.

The remainder of the sleek bombers made a perfect overwater rendezvous and released their bombs at 11:02 a.m. Japan daylight time (8:02 p.m. EST Wednesday) through mist so thick that radar was used to sight the target.

Maj. Gen. Emmett (Rosy) O'Donnell directed this first mission of his new command, the Far East Bomber Command (provisional). The 43-year-old two star general, once a West Point football coach, led the first World War II B-29 raid on Japan.

This Is Circus Day In Gettysburg

The first performance of Rogers Brothers four-ring circus was given this afternoon in the "big top" on the L. D. Shealer lot, West High and Howard streets. Doors to the menagerie opened at 2 o'clock and the show started at 3 p.m.

The circus has four elephants, a number of trained dogs and horses, plus several trained wild animal acts and aerialists. The show will be repeated at 8 p.m. tonight, with the menagerie opening at 7 p.m.

Many youngsters were attracted to the circus lot early this morning when the first units of the circus, which travels by truck and house trailer, began arriving in Gettysburg. They watched the unloading and the erection of the tents, in which the elephants assisted.

The circus comes here under sponsorship of the Gettysburg Exchange club.

"SPRINKLE PARTY"

The Junior Y-Teens held their last meeting of the season Wednesday morning. Following a period of games, the group took part in a "sprinkle party." All members were asked to return their Red Cross swimming cards prior to Saturday.

William M. Kofmehl, Spokane, Wash., tail gunner on our abortive flight and veteran of the European air war.

"But maybe it's better to get it over with now instead of getting pushed around all the time like we've been doing."

They knew they have the planes and the experience to master this kind of war—and they know, too, what it was like for the infantrymen on the ground, most of them untested before two weeks ago, to be outnumbered and outgunned.

"I sure hope our bombs help," Tech. Sgt. Robert Asher told Flint O. Dupre, a former Dallas newspaperman. Dupre as FEAR public information officer flew in one of the planes reaching the target. Asher, engineer on that ship, comes from Riverside, Calif.

Dupre said that over the target area the weather closed in so tightly that his aircraft commander, Lt. Norman B. Hemingway, Miami, Fla., had to climb 500 feet to be sure of avoiding his wing plane.

CAR THIEF IS BROUGHT HERE FROM YORK TO FACE CHARGES

Wednesday afternoon's 18-year-old East Palestine, Ohio, hitchhiker who gave his name as Kenneth R. Parker, and who stole an automobile in front of Christ Lutheran church and was apprehended with it at York, today became 21-year-old William Edmund Schaible, of Detroit.

Schaible stole not one, but two automobiles, state police of the Gettysburg substation also learned, after they had brought the Detroit youth back from York Wednesday afternoon, and used the name of the owner of the first car he took when he was arrested in York.

Schaible told state police that he served four years in a Michigan reformatory for a prior car theft and had been released a short time ago. He left Detroit, he said, because he was unable to find work there, telling state police that he intended originally to go to Chicago.

Stole Ohio Car First

At East Palestine, Ohio, Schaible took the Parker automobile and drove to Gettysburg. He started south on Route 116 toward Bonnevillie and drove into some woods about two miles south of here when the gas in the car ran low, he said.

He walked back to Gettysburg, "spotted" the car of Howard Haymaker, Winchester, Va., sales manager for the Keister Advertising Service, Strasburg, Va., in front of Christ Lutheran church. The keys were in the ignition switch, Schaible said. According to state police, the youth drove back to the woods where he had abandoned the Ohio automobile. He removed some of the contents, including a quantity of fishing tackle and equipment, and put it in Haymaker's car. He transferred his own clothes to the Haymaker car, throwing the latter's clothing from his suitcase into the bushes, where it was found when police recovered the Ohio car.

Admits Theft Here
Parker's registration card and driver's license were in the Ohio automobile, and Schaible used this name when arrested in York because he had found the cards in the car. York police made the arrest from the license number of the Virginia car which had been sent out from the state police substation by radio and teletype here. York police said Schaible was driving through York "like any other tourist" when arrested.

Arraigned Wednesday evening before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder on a charge of larceny of an automobile, Schaible admitted taking the Haymaker car and was held for court. He was committed to jail in default of bail.

GETS 30 DAYS

Alfred J. Hall, Flora Dale, arrested by borough police Tuesday on a disorderly conduct charge, was committed to the Adams county jail Wednesday by Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore for 30 days in default of a fine of $10 and costs.

Miss Ruth H. Bigham, of Denver, Colo., is visiting her nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Bigham, Highland avenue, Mrs. C. A. Bigham, Baltimore, was a guest at the Bigham home here Wednesday.

Washington, July 13 (AP)—The air force said today it had received a report that a B29 Superfortress has been shot down by enemy fighters near Seoul, the first reported B29 loss to enemy action.

An air force briefing officer at the Pentagon said the report came from the pilot of a U.S.A.F.F.-80 fighter who had been in radio contact with the B29.

Tokyo, July 13 (AP)—Weary U.S. troops dug in behind the vital Kum river while three North Korean divisions massed to the north for an assault over this natural barrier.

Far to the northeast, the Red bridged the Han river at Tanyang and sent at least one division, with artillery, to cut the key rail line from the southeast Korean port of Pusan to Taejon, 13 miles south of the Kum river line.

Doughboys Dig In
General MacArthur, in a communique covering developments reported earlier in front line dispatches, said American and South Korean forces "continued to withdraw before numerically superior forces to take up defense behind prepared positions and natural barriers."

He apparently referred to the withdrawal south of the Kum. Spokesmen at the front said earlier U.S. troops had blasted several bridges over the strategic stream.

Hurled back by North Korea's Red horde, weary doughboys dug in on the Kum river's south bank for a new defense. They had a new commander, Lt. Gen. Walton H. Walker, veteran tank fighter of World War II.

Front Is Quiet
The front was relatively quiet. Presumably the North Koreans were regrouping for an assault across the vital Kum, last natural barrier in South Korea. Allied warplanes pounded transport and supply routes north of the river throughout the day.

An advanced headquarters spokesman said several bridges across the winding Kum river, 13 miles north of Taejon, were blown up last night. One was a large railway bridge.

The Reds launched a new drive from newly-won Tanyang, 65 miles northeast of Taejon. Heading southwest, it looked like a push to cut the vital rail line from the southeast port of Pusan to Taejon, key defense center 13 miles south of the Kum.

General MacArthur announced the appointment last midnight of Walker, chief of the Eighth Army in Japan, as commander of ground forces in Korea.

Walker Visits Front
The Eighth Army had set up an advanced command post in Korea and taken over the job of U. S. Army Forces in Korea (USAFIK). The latter command was abolished.

Walker commanded the famed armored "Ghost Corps" of General George Patton's Third Army in Europe. He was cited by Britain and praised by the U. S. War department (now the department of the army) for his coordination of infantry and armored groups.

Walker made a flying visit to the Korean fighting front Saturday. MacArthur did not say if Walker would return to Korea.

Gen. J. Lawton Collins, army chief of staff, and Gen. Hoyt Vandenberg, air force chief of staff, conferred here with MacArthur and, presumably, with Walker.

BULLETINS

Tokyo, July 13 (AP)—The Pyongyang radio said tonight the North Korean government has agreed to observe the Geneva convention regarding treatment of prisoners of war.

Battlefield reports have said 18 captive American soldiers were bound and shot to death by the invading Communists.

Foreign Minister Pak Hong Yong, the radio said, sent a message to United Nations Secretary-General Trygve Lie agreeing to comply with Lie's request to treat prisoners humanely.

Tucson, Ariz., July 13 (AP)—A big plane crashed and exploded into a mass of flames on Bassett peak in the rugged Galuro mountains of Southern Arizona early today, a rancher reported. Homer Byrd said he heard the motors thunder over his ranch house, 40 miles northwest of Wilcox, at 12:20 a.m. (MST).

Miss Ruth H. Bigham, of Denver, Colo., is visiting her nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Bigham, Highland avenue, Mrs. C. A. Bigham, Baltimore, was a guest at the Bigham home here Wednesday.

FIRE DAMAGES RESTAURANT

Philadelphia, July 13 (AP)—A raging fire damaged a four-story North Philadelphia restaurant building last night, fatally burning an elderly caretaker.

Shooting flames 20 feet above the roof, the blaze caused extensive damage on the upper floors of the structure occupied by Halpern's Roumanian restaurant.

Firemen, who erected aerial ladders to a number of windows in the building, found the caretaker—George Dinadis, 68—unconscious on the fourth floor where they said he occupied an apartment.

Dinadis died in St. Joseph's hospital.

The restaurant was closed. The operator, Sam Halpern, and his wife, Celia, told police they had left the place for home shortly after 11 p.m. Harold Howard, who operates a luncheonette next door, smelled smoke and telephoned the alarm.

Cause of the fire was not determined.

Leon Gold, Halpern's son-in-law and a partner, estimated damage to be in excess of $75,000.

Four Motorists Pay Motor Code Fines

Ronald Z. Burgner, Hagerstown, charged by borough police with parking on the left side of a street here against traffic, paid a fine of $5 and costs to Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder.

News Briefs

Paynesville, Minn., July 13 (AP)—A Soo line special train carrying 225 eastern vacationists to Canada side-swiped a freight train here today, injuring approximately 40 persons.

Preliminary examination indicated only five or six were injured seriously. All were treated aboard the train or in doctors' offices here. Arrangements were made to take the passengers to Minneapolis later in the day.

Lenkerville, Pa., July 13 (AP)—A "sit-down" by residents of this Dauphin county town of 200 prevented the Pennsylvania Railroad today from replacing a dislodged steel girder on an underpass they regard as dangerous to pedestrians. Protesting residents, with Chief of Police Earl Farmer in the center, just sat on the fallen girder as railroad workmen sent to remove it looked on.

Washington, July 13 (AP)—Chairman George (D-Ga.) of the Senate Finance committee said today he sees no prospect of increasing Federal taxes at the present session of Congress, even though the Korean situation worsens. "There will be plenty time for that in January, if the need arises," he said.

Washington, July 13 (AP)—Senator Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) demanded today that the Senate Communist inquiry be reopened for a look into Senator McCarthy's latest charges—accusations the State department termed false and distorted.

The charges by McCarthy, Wisconsin Republican, are based on material which he said proves that the department hired men in 1946 to strip its personnel files of derogatory information about other employees.

Philadelphia, July 13 (AP)—Richardson Dilworth said today he has asked the Democratic State committee to adopt a platform calling for redrafting the state constitution of 1873.

Dilworth, Democratic candidate for governor, said he has forwarded a 19-point program to the committee, which will meet at Harrisburg on July 24. The Dilworth program asks the committee to begin a drive for a state convention to modernize the basic laws of the Commonwealth.

Top Brass Of Armed Forces Do Spade Work Of U.S. Joint Chiefs Of Staff — Four Men

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, July 13 (AP)—Four men—the joint chiefs of staff—are the top military planners in this country.

It's their job to figure out what the armed forces of this country can, or can't, or should do in any given situation.

Back in 1947 Congress decided to put an end to the old conflict between the Army, Navy and Airforce.

While each was completely independent of the other, they often worked at cross purposes and competed with each other for money to spend, for equipment, and even for men.

And their ideas of military planning went off in opposite directions. If, somehow, they could be brought together Congress thought, this wasteful conflict might be ended.

Unify Armed Forces

So in 1947 Congress passed an act to "unify" the armed forces. Under this act the group known as "the joint chiefs of staff" was created.

Its four members are: General Omar Bradley, chairman; General J. Lawton Collins, chief of staff of the Army; Admiral Forrest Sherman, chief of naval operations, and General Hoyt S. Vandenberg, chief of staff of the Air Force.

All four men have their offices in the Pentagon, that massive home of the armed forces. But they don't meet every day, sitting around a table, arguing eight hours a day.

They have no fixed schedule for meetings. They may get together once a week or twice a week, or every day if there's a crisis, as there was with Korea a week ago.

The reason they don't have to meet round-the-clock is that they have other people doing the spade work for them. This is then turned over to them for final decision.

200 On Staff

Working for the JCS is a staff of about 200 officers from the Army, Navy and Air Force. This staff occupies a wing of the Pentagon and it is broken up this way:

1. Committees. There are several committees, each specializing in a certain field. Each committee has three members—one from each of three branches of the service. Almost always these committee members are generals and admirals. For example: There's a committee on strategy, another on intelligence or military information, and so on.

2. Each committee in turn has the help of a "group." A group is made up of Army, Navy and Air Force officers, part of the 200-man staff which works for the JCS.

And the way the job is done goes like this: say it's necessary to figure out how we should fight a war with Russia, if that becomes necessary. Should the U. S. try to attack from the Arctic, through western Europe, or from Asia or perhaps from all three directions?

The group on strategy will tackle this, calling on the other groups for help, such as on military intelligence or information.

The strategy group will have to consider a million details: weather, clothing, equipment, transportation, the number of men and planes and ships needed, whether long-range bombing or land attack is best.

When this strategy group of Army, Navy and airmen has worked out what it considers a reasonable plan—or plans—it makes its recommendations to the committee of the JCS.

Then this committee of two generals and an admiral goes over the problem, and the recommendation. It either approves or sends it back to the group for more working over.

Decisions Not Final

But say it thinks the plan prepared by the group is all right. It then recommends this to Bradley and the other three members of the JCS. The JCS can approve or send it back for more study.

But although Bradley is chairman of the JCS and can take part in its discussions, under the law he cannot vote when the other three members get around to making a decision.

And—the decision of those three men must be unanimous. If one disagrees, then they turn the problem over to the Secretary of Defense, Louis Johnson, for decision.

Since in this country civilians are in control, on the big questions the JCS can make no decisions but can only recommend to the two heads of our military set-up: President Truman, who is commander-in-chief, or Louis Johnson, Secretary of Defense.

But—since recommendations of the JCS are supposed to represent the best military brains we have, they have tremendous weight.

Shutters often contribute much to the appeal of homes of colonial or other period designs, if they are authentic in style. Manufacturers are now making shutters that conform to the architectural style of all common period homes.

Linoeum, once confined chiefly to floors, has branched out in the home and is now regarded as an attractive and practical surface for sink tops and drain boards. Because of its resiliency, it reduces clatter and retards breakage of dishes.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

There it Was—Right in The Middle!

Easy Roberts mowed his lawn early last Saturday. Then he sat on the porch, and watched Handy Peterson cutting his grass.

The Roberts' property and the Peterson's border each other—with no hedge or fence between them. So, when Easy notices Handy had left about a four-foot strip unmowed along the boundary, he walks over and asks why.

"That's your land," says Handy. "Mine ends here. See, it lines up with that oak tree across the road!" Easy didn't think so, so they went up and down looking for the surveyor's marker. Where did they find it? Right in the middle of their "no man's land!"

Well, they both grin and take turns finishing the job and then retreat to Easy's for a friendly glass of beer together. From where I sit, a little searching around for the truth of the matter often shows that the other fellow is as much right as you are—at which point the whole thing doesn't seem as important anyway.

ELBOW MAY BENCH TED FOR SEASON

Boston, July 13 (AP)—Ted Williams, the Boston Red Sox $125,000-a-year outfielder, undergoes an operation for a fracture of the left elbow today, but his teammates still have their sights set on the American league pennant.

"There is a good possibility Williams will be out for the rest of the season," Orthopedic Surgeon Joseph Shortell said as he prepared to perform the operation at Santa Maria hospital in Cambridge.

But the Red Sox took the news of their lanky slugger's injury in the all-star game as "part of the game" and refused to admit they were out of the pennant race, although eight games behind the front-running Detroit Tigers.

"Pretty Tough Luck"

"There's no killing Williams' shoes," said Manager Steve O'Neill in announcing Clyde Volmer will take over left field and bat in Ted's No. 3 spot. "It is pretty tough luck for him and the ball club, but there is nothing we can do about it," the Boston piker added.

Johnny Pesky's comment was typical among the Soxers: "Gee, that's tough for Williams and certainly tough for all of us, but these things happen and we simply will have to battle all the harder."

Williams suffered his injury after hauling down Ralph Kiner's long smash in the first inning of the all-star classic in Chicago's Comiskey park Tuesday.

"I hit the wall with the heel of my hand," Ted explained. "But it was in the elbow that I noticed the pain."

Called "Very Serious"

Williams said the pain didn't bother him too much until he left the game at the end of eight innings. But then, he said, it started to ache and by the time he boarded a plane for Boston he had to keep it perfectly still and even then it throbbed.

Although given the "OK" by Packy Schwartz, Chicago White Sox trainer, Ted decided on X-rays yesterday. The pictures showed a fracture of the head of the left radius—a bone in the elbow.

Dr. Shortell described the injury as "very serious" and "very painful." He said Williams may have to undergo "a secondary operation to take out the whole head of the bone."

Hagerstown retained its slim grip on first place in the Class B Interstate league today—one game over Wilmington—as both front-runners split doubleheaders last night.

Hagerstown defeated Allentown 1-0 in a nine-inning first game but lost the finale 7-1. Wilmington, meantime, edged Sunbury 2-1 in 10 innings but lost the second game 7-6 to the league's last place team.

In the only other game played, Lancaster defeated York 6-4.

Harrisburg and Trenton were not scheduled. The Harrisburg Nine played an exhibition with the National league's New York Giants and lost 10-8 in eleven innings.

Frank Filchock Is Reinstated

Philadelphia, July 13 (AP)—Commissioner Bert Bell of the National football league today lifted the indefinite suspension he placed on Frank Filchock three years ago.

Filchock, a former backfield star for the New York Giants, was suspended by the league in 1947 for failing to report a bribe offer.

So was Merle Hapes, a teammate of Filchock's. Hapes was not involved in today's decision by Bell. Only Filchock had applied for reinstatement.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, July 13 (AP)—You hear that Ted Williams broke a bone in his elbow during Tuesday's All-Star game and probably will be out the rest of the season . . . and immediately you recall what happened to Dizzy Dean back in 1937. . . . Dizzy, always a center of controversies, had been charged with trying to "duck" that game . . . but he went in and pitched and a line drive broke his toe. . . . Trying to ease up on that injured member, Dean hurt his pitching arm and it never regained its old whiplike strength. . . . He won only one game for the Cards that year and only a few after he was sold to the Cubs for $185,000 the next year. . . . Maybe Ted can get back into action in a few weeks and maybe the injury won't interfere with his batting—but just think what might happen to baseball's most valuable bit of ivory if he should develop an unconscious hitch in his swing. . . . If there's any question, Ted probably should stick to the one-handed sport of fly casting.

WATCHFUL WAITING

Jack White of the football Yankees has been scouting and signing players in the southwest and reports that college coaches keep asking "what about that eight-man line."

Seems a lot of them are experimenting with Greasy Neale's method of stopping "T" plays and they'd like to know how to beat that defense. . . . Jack's standard reply is: "Come to Philadelphia September 16. (That's when Neale's Eagles play the Cleveland Browns.) Paul Brown will come up with something."

ONE-MINUTE SPORTS PAGE

Word just trickling in from Oklahoma is that four out of five starters on Hank Iba's A. and M. basketball team next winter will be sophomores. . . . Seems last year's frosh squad consistently outscored the varsity by several country miles. . . .

Charlie Justice, who makes as many as six speeches a week in his new public relations job with the North Carolina Medical Foundation, has turned down a bid to go overseas with a football clinic as well as an invitation to the Chicago All-Star game. . . . Ben Hogan has signed with General Artists to handle radio and TV bookings and probably will get more out of 15-minute guest shots than from three-hour golf exhibitions.

Sport Shorts

Saratoga Spring, N. Y., July 13 (AP)—Proximity, greatest money winner among 20th century harness horses, tries tonight to pick up a few more dollars in the $5,000 Chatham free-for-all trot at Saratoga Raceway.

The eight-year-old mare has collected $198,130 to date—just $8,332 short of the record $206,462 earned by Goldsmith Maid in racing from 1865 through 1877.

In the 1950 season, Proximity has won eight races without a loss.

Allentown, Pa., July 13 (AP)—Rod Eaken of Reading scored a birdie on the first extra hole to beat out Charlie Strack, York, for the State Junior Chamber of Commerce golf championship.

The two ended the regulation 36 holes all square with 14 1/2 at the Lehigh Country club yesterday. In the sudden death playoff, Eaken dropped his approach shot two and one half feet from the pin and then holed out.

Eastern League

(By The Associated Press)

Sad Sam Jones is having trouble posting his 14th pitching victory. The Elmira Pioneers won't let him. The Pioneers handed the Wilkes-Barre Indians a 5-3 setback last night in 11 innings and squelched Jones' hopes for the second time in less than a week. It was his second loss of the year.

The win enabled Elmira to split a twin bill with the Eastern league leaders. The Indians won the opener, 3-2.

The Binghamton Triplets' 4-2 victory over the Albany Senators was marred by the injury of Dale Long, the trip's first baseman. The cellar-dwelling Scranton Miners shut out the Williamsport Tigers, 10-0, after absorbing a 4-3 defeat in the first game of the twin bill at Williamsport. The Utica Blue Sox moved a game closer to second-place Binghamton by winning two games from the Hartford Chiefs, 3-2 and 2-1.

Hagerstown, Wilmington at Lancaster, Trenton at Allentown and Sunbury at York.

PHILS TO MEET CARDS TONIGHT IN CRUCIAL GAME

(By The Associated Press)

The chips will be down tonight when Philadelphia risks its hard won first place in the National league against the second place Cardinals in the opening of a vital three-game series at St. Louis.

This is the big game of the day as the majors return to family feuding after the all-star melodrama, although an important series opens tonight also at Yankee stadium.

Cleveland Indians, a game and one-half back of the second place New York Yankees in the American circuit, have a three-game job at the stadium. The injury-riddled Yanks are three games back of the league-leading Detroit Tigers, who meet the Senators at Washington in another night tussle.

Battle Of Southpaws

But the Phillies vs. Cardinals affair dominates the scene, and upon the outcome rests temporary leadership in the National loop.

The amazing Phillies, holding a one-game edge over St. Louis, are expected to shoot Curt Simmons (10-5) against Howie Pollet (9-5) in a battle of southpaws.

Both the Phils and Cards have to take into consideration the fast-stepping Boston Braves, slamming along in third place only two games out of the lead.

Billy Southworth's boys are in Cincinnati for a night game with the Reds, and Johnny Sain with a 12-5 record is due to be on the mound for the Beantowners.

The Brooklyn Dodgers, in fourth place four and one-half games back of Philadelphia, meet the ever-troublesome Cubs in Chicago.

Hospital List Grows

In the American league, the hospital list is drawing as much attention as the schedule, which sees the four western clubs in the east.

The loss of Ted Williams, who may be out for the season because of a left elbow fracture in Tuesday's all-star game at Chicago, is a stiff blow to the Boston Red Sox. They meet Chicago in Boston tonight.

The Yankees also are consulting the physicians, with Joe DiMaggio, Yogi Berra and Hank Bauer doubtful starters against Cleveland.

Detroit's Freddie Hutchinson (9-5) is scheduled to oppose Sid Hudson (8-7), at Washington, where the Tigers hope to make some pennant hay before coming in to Boston and New York later next week.

Says VFW May Be In Uniform Again

Harrisburg, July 13 (AP)—Pennsylvania war veterans were warned today that they "may all be back in uniform" before the Korean crisis is resolved.

The warning came from Louis G. Feldmann, senior vice commander of the state Veterans of Foreign Wars, at the opening of the organization's annual convention here.

"It is a serious time we are facing," Feldmann declared, "and we should all realize and be prepared for the consequences which may ensue."

Some 3,000 delegates were on hand for the 31st annual convention.

POSTPONE GAME

The baseball game between New Oxford and Littlestown, previously scheduled for Saturday, has been postponed to Thursday, July 20, at 8:30 p.m., on the Littlestown Memorial Field.

Belleville, Pa., July 13 (AP)—A three-year-old boy, Willis C. Rider, was shot and killed yesterday while he and two brothers, Dan, 6, and Robert, 7, were playing with a shotgun at their home near Madison park, a lumber camp, 25 miles from Belleville. Coroner Charles Schaeckler said the shooting was accidental and no inquest would be held.

Fights Last Night

(By The Associated Press)

New York—Jake La Motta, 159, New York, fought Tiberio Mitri, 159, Italy, 15. (Title.)

Philadelphia — George "Sugar" Costner, 148, Camden, N. J., out-pointed Ike Williams, 143, Trenton, N. J., 10. (Non-title.)

Bridgeport, Conn.—Irish Jimmy Rooney, 127 1/2, Bridgeport, knocked out Carl Arakaki, 130, Honolulu, 2.

MITRI IS EASY FOR LA MOTTA

New York, July 13 (AP)—Another Jake La Motta-Ray Robinson fight was in the making today following the middleweight champion's easy conquest of Italy's Tiberio Mitri.

La Motta was due to step into the offices of the International Boxing club some time this afternoon to pick up a check of around $33,700 and to discuss plans for a sixth scrap with the welterweight king.

The Bronx Bull paved the way for that encounter by belting out a 15-round unanimous decision over Mitri in Madison Square Garden last night.

It was like old times in the Palace of Sock as a surprisingly large turnout of 16,369 paid $99.841 and rocked the roof with cheers. It was the biggest Garden fight in a couple of years. There was no radio or television broadcast.

La Motta will cut into a richer pot than that if he signs to take on Sugar Ray outdoors in September.

Abe Greene, commissioner of the NBA, said the champ had agreed in writing months ago to defend his crown against Robinson within 90 days.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

DIGNITY

I care not what one's work may be, it can always be performed with dignity and worthy of personal credit. Even the most menial of jobs can be placed in this class. Wherever the sweat of the brow is contributed to one's own comfort and those dear to one, there is dignity in that performance, no matter what the task may be.

Robert Louis Stevenson, in one of his delightful books, had this to say: "Though I have all my life been eager for legitimate distinction, I can lay my hand upon my heart, at the end of my career, and declare there is not one—not, not yet life itself—which is worth acquiring or preserving at the slightest cost of dignity."

The equipment, that becomes ours at birth, is a precious asset. The more we do with that asset, the happier and more satisfactory will life itself be. Even a dog has an inborn dignity. Violate it and that dog's regard and loyalty are at once sorely attacked. How much more, then, is this dignity of ours harmed and hurt when it is assailed.

We can always exercise dignity without being a snob at it. As a matter of fact, those with the most cherished personal dignity are usually those who have the most regard for other people's feelings, and so make themselves friendly and likable to everybody, recognizing that the humblest has rights equal to our own.

The happiest, and the most useful, person is that one who spends no more than he earns, envies not that one who is more fortunate, rigidly adhering to his own method of handling life, keeping himself "in complete contentment and activity of mind and senses." Such a one can glory in his independence and his well earned dignity of character.

Several times I have mentioned in this space the instance of a remote graveyard in New England, where a young girl was buried, and on her tombstone were these words: "She Was So Pleasant." That line made a great impression on me, and is something to remember. She was so pleasant I am sure that she carried that manner with outstanding dignity—noticed by all.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Brave Gymnasium."

WEDDING PROBLEMS
What ever does the bachelor do With wedding invitations?
How choose the one, when there are two,
Same hour, but different stations?
Who tells him all about the groom Or who's to be the bride,
And in the gay reception room Keeps him with names supplied?

How does the bachelor know just what
To buy for this or that one?
Shall it be crystalware or not,
Or silver piece—a flat one?
With neither wife nor daughters wise
To follow Emily Post,
How does he know the gift he buys Is what is wanted most?

Does he go shopping for himself,
The various stories exploring,
For things to line the pantry shelf Or pots for coffee pouring?
My daughters do the work for me When there are gifts to send,
Since lonely must the bachelor be, On whom does he depend?

42 DEAD, 190 WOUNDED, 256 YANKS MISSING IN KOREAN WAR

Tokyo, July 13 (AP)—General MacArthur's headquarters announced tonight that American losses in the Korean war to date have been 42 killed, 190 wounded and 256 missing.

The announcement said "losses sustained by the American forces have been greatly exaggerated in press reports from the front."

"Many of the missing are undoubtedly men who, in the confusion of the fighting, have lost touch with their own units and will eventually return."

The announcement continued: "Probably the most flagrant of these exaggerated reports dealt with the so-called 'lost battalion' of the 34th Infantry which was reported as being completely annihilated whereas its actual losses amounted to only two killed, seven wounded and 12 missing."

Losses Exaggerated

Reports of American losses have been exaggerated because, the statement said, the army has avoided any military censorship or undue restrictions on the movements of war correspondents.

It said this was the first time in modern war that such an experiment had been tried.

"Reports of warfare are, at any time, grisly and repulsive and reflect the emotional strain normal to those unaccustomed to the sights and sounds of battle," the statement said. "Exaggerated stories obtained from individual wounded or mentally shocked have given a completely distorted and misrepresentative picture to the public." The announcement said:

Fight Skillful Action

"American ground units in Korea are fighting one of the most skillful and heroic holding and rear guard actions in history. Their excellent peacetime training is reflected in the combat record they are now compiling. They have been overwhelmingly outnumbered, in some instances more than 20 to 1, and the casualties inflicted on the enemy have been immeasurably greater than those they have sustained."

"They have filled a breach without which the North Korean forces would have long ere this, completely overrun and destroyed South Korea. This has provided time for the rapid movement of reinforcements forward in exploitation to the fullest extent of the logistical capabilities at hand. Each day we reduce the enemy's relative superiority in numbers and weapons."

Littlestown

Littlestown — The Ever Willing Sunday school class of St. John's Lutheran church met on Tuesday evening at the Hollinger cottage, Marsh Creek Heights, with 18 members in attendance. A business session was conducted by the president, Mrs. Donald Reaver. Plans were completed for the food sale which the class will conduct Friday afternoon beginning at 4 o'clock at Boyd's store. Mrs. Norman Johnson was received as a new member. The next meeting will be held Tuesday, August 8, at the home of Mrs. Henry Barnes.

Contests were enjoyed with prizes awarded to Mrs. Edgar E. Yealy, Mrs. Wilson Greene, Mrs. Fred King and Mrs. Fred Lester. Guest packagers were received by Mrs. Fred Lester and Mrs. Dale Stary. The birthday of Mrs. Wilson Greene was observed and she received a gift from each member. A wiener roast was also enjoyed by the group. An outing was enjoyed on Tuesday evening at the Samuel H. Higginbotham cottage, Marsh Creek Heights, by the Ladies' Aid society of Redeemer's Reformed church and members' families. Mrs. John LeGore, president, conducted the devotions. Routine business was conducted by Mrs. LeGore. The society will follow the custom of previous years and omit the August meeting. The next meeting will be held at the church on Tuesday, September 5, when the Misses Lillian Demmit and Helen Myers will be hostesses. 40 Injured In Railroad Collision

Paynesville, Minn., July 13 (AP)—A special train loaded with eastern vacationists headed for Canada collided with a freight train here early today and at least 40 were injured.

R. E. La Masurier, editor of the Paynesville Press, said doctors and ambulances were summoned from a wide area. Paynesville is 100 miles northwest of Minneapolis.

Both trains were operated by the Minneapolis, St. Paul and Sault Ste. Marie (Soo) Railroad.

The 15-Pullman special train had left Minneapolis at 1:30 a.m., bound for Banff, Canada. It carried 300 members of the Ohio, Pennsylvania and Atlantic Seaboard Hardware associations.

La Masurier said the eastbound freight was attempting to take a siding when the collision occurred. He reported the westbound passenger train was traveling 50 miles an hour when it struck, shortly after 3 a.m. (CST).

PUBLISHER DIES IN AUTO CRASH

Indiana, Pa., July 13 (AP)—Co-owner-publisher B. Dwight Ray of the Indiana Evening Gazette died today of injuries suffered in an automobile crash at nearby Black Lick.

Ray, 56, apparently fell asleep while driving alone in his car along Route 119, about 12 miles south of Indiana. His car failed to round a curve. He died in the Indiana hospital at 3:50 a.m. shortly after the accident.

The newspaper publisher was national commander of the 80th Division Veterans association in 1949. He was a member of the Pittsburgh Commandery, number one of Williamsport, Consistory and Jaffe Temple, Altoona.

With his brothers, R. Hattie Ray and N. Dewitt Day, his twin, B. Dwight Ray had published the Indiana afternoon newspaper since the death of the brothers' father, R. N. Ray.

During World War I, B. Dwight Ray served with Company F of the 305 Engineers, 80th Division. He was overseas more than a year. Survivors include his widow, Amye, his mother, Mrs. Bell Ray, a daughter, Mrs. James Reese of Atlanta, Ga., and his two brothers. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

meet with the recreation board to discuss plans to make the battle anniversary celebration a permanent affair on the recreation grounds. Named to the committee were James S. Shenk, James A. Aumen, Joseph E. Codori, Charles H. Huber, Jr., William Gilbert, Donald Staub and Donald McSherry.

The fire company voted unanimously to refuse to accept the resignation of James A. Aumen as fire chief, after hearing the report of a special committee appointed to confer with Aumen, whose resignation was submitted at the June meeting. Glenn Weishaar was chairman of the special committee.

March In Parades

Firemen voted to march in the following parades: July 14 at Manchester, Md., at 7 p.m.; July 19 at Arcadia, Md., at 7 p.m.; July 20 at McConnellsburg at 7:30 p.m., and August 2 at Hampstead, Md., at 7 p.m. One hundred and twenty-five active members of the fire company now have uniforms, it was reported. A motion was adopted to march in the parades, rather than ride on the fire trucks.

Following a request made by Fred G. Pfeffer at the June meeting, the fire company voted to cooperate with the Sequi-Centennial committee in its forthcoming observance of the 150th anniversary of Adams county. A letter was received from the Sequi committee asking the firemen to cooperate with a Philadelphia firm which will decorate the streets and buildings for the celebration. It was felt that inasmuch as the fire company has only the engine house to decorate, and this is owned by the borough, the matter of decorations be left to the borough council.

Letter Of Thanks

George E. Tate was accepted as a new member of the fire company. Applications of three others, David L. Baker, 102 West Middle street, William A. George, 112 Chambersburg street, and Bernard Miller, Round Top, were referred to the investigating committee.

A letter of thanks was received from the New Oxford fire company for use of grappling hooks and assistance of the Gettysburg rescue squad at a recent drowning at the Alwine brickyard. A check for $15 was received from the drive-in theater near Cross Keys for use of the emergency lighting equipment on the service truck for three nights before lights were installed at the theater.

Vice President William G. Weaver presided at the meeting. Refreshments were served.

Prince street, their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Gordon and son, Robert, West King street, returned home after spending a week with the former's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Gordon and son, Dennis, Holyoke, Mass.

Soliciting committees will be announced in the near future.

E. J. Altoff was added to the carnival finance committee which was announced several weeks ago. The carnival dates are from August 7 to 12 inclusive. A special feature of entertainment every evening will be the Harvey Girls, unique aerial sensations. They will give two performances each evening. In addition to the Harvey Girls from Tuesday to Saturday nights inclusive, the following other entertainment will be presented: Tuesday, Buckboard Ramblers from station WHVR; Wednesday, Littlestown high school band; Thursday, Joseph Smiley and company, magician; Friday, Bojans, dancing and balancing act, and Saturday, Rhythm Rascals.

Discuss Fire School

A discussion was held in regards to sending a member of the company to the state fire school at Lewistown, August 14 to 18. The matter was tabled until the August meeting. The company voted the truck committee and the company officers the right to approve the blueprints and specifications of the newly ordered truck, when they are received.

Irvin R. Crabbs was elected to membership in the company. Bills were ordered paid amounting to $92.82. Receipts of the evening were $709.03, of which amount, $694.62 represented the two per cent insurance refund from the state. Fire Chief Jay D. Basehoar reported three calls during the past month, with slight damage. Two were chimney fires and the third a grass fire.

No Spike Buck Season This Year

Harrisburg, July 13 (AP)—There will be no spike buck season, this year, says Thomas B. Frye, of the State Game commission.

The executive director explained yesterday that a spike buck is a deer with visible antlers, neither of which has more than one point.

Frye emphasized that the 1950 season includes a two-day shoot for antlerless deer starting Nov. 27. This will be followed, he said, by a buck season for male deer with two or more points to one antler. The latter season will run from Nov. 29 to Dec. 9.

A hunter may kill either one antlerless deer or one legal antlered deer, but not both, Frye said.

Wilmington, Del., July 13 (AP)—More than 40 persons were sent to hospital after tear gas, accidentally released from a burglar alarm system, trapped them along with some 20 others in a bank building yesterday.

The 40, all employees of the Security Trust company, were carried to the street by firemen wearing gas masks. None was reported in serious condition.

WOULD DEPORT ALL COMMIES

Pittsburgh, July 13 (AP)—Judge Michael A. Musmanno is for "mass deportation of Communists back to Russia which they shamelessly declare is a better country than America."

He made the statement last night in opening his campaign for election as Lieutenant Governor of Pennsylvania.

Musmanno, a judge of the Allegheny Common Pleas court told a Stowe township audience:

"If elected, I shall introduce legislation to keep Communists off grand juries and traverse juries, out of houses built at government expense, out of schools, and—I would like to say—out of America."

Musmanno recently barred a woman named as a Communist from a county grand jury. The Pennsylvania Supreme court rebuked him for improper action.

Washington, July 13 (AP)—The Senate Judiciary committee has given its approval to a bill which will make the roving U.S. district judge for Pennsylvania judge of the middle Pennsylvania federal district when a vacancy occurs. An identical bill passed the House Monday.

Chester, Pa., July 13 (AP)—Ten longshoremen riding a wooden cargo tray onto a ship accidentally were dumped 20 feet into the hold of the vessel. Three were injured, one seriously. William Moore, 49, one of those hurt, said the men were loading paper into the hold of the cargo ship George Uhler yesterday. He reported the platform slipped and tossed the 19 down.

REDS HAVE 800 SHIPS (80 SUBS) IN KOREAN AREA

Washington, July 13 (AP)—Russia is believed to have an assorted collection of about 800 naval craft deployed near the Korean war area including between 70 and 80 submarines.

Naval sources here figure that perhaps a third of this school of submarines are the new XXI Snorkels.

Although the 800 total estimate is numerically big, there is no present evidence that it comprises anything like a balanced naval force. Those studying the situation believe many of these vessels are small craft of various types and that certainly nothing bigger than cruisers are in the area.

So far as can be determined, the Russian navy still possesses no aircraft carriers.

Concern To U.S.

One unknown factor seems to be how many of the smaller Soviet vessels may be landing craft or types that could be used in emergency for an amphibious operation.

The presence in the Far East of any sizable number of landing craft could be of grave concern to American forces. They could be used to provide an amphibious "lift" for the North Korean flanking operations down the South Korean coast lines.

However, it is the Russian submarine force that is drawing most U.S. attention.

As deployed, the Red sub fleet in the Far East seems to have as its main job the potential duty of cutting the Asiatic-Indonesian lifeline along which the United States would send help in event of general war in the Orient.

Movements Are Secret

An almost equally important mission is to carry on reconnaissance of American and British naval ship, transport ship and air movement in the western Pacific and the inland seas bordering eastern Asia.

If there have been any sightings of suspicious actions by Russian submarines in those waters, the Pentagon has kept it secret.

The Red navy apparently is basing its Far East submarine fleet at a number of ports, rather than a few major ports, in the Soviet-controlled areas.

The reason for this may not be dictated entirely by strategy. The dispersal probably is caused in part by the fact that harbor facilities are limited at any one port.

Court Orders GI Slate On Ballot

Harrisburg, July 13 (AP)—The Dauphin county court ordered the State Election Bureau to accept nomination papers of candidates of the "GIs Against Communism" ticket for printing on the ballot at the November election.

The slate of candidates includes Gregory Curry, Sharon, for U. S. Senator; G. J. Still, Bradford, for governor; Philip Angelo, Pittsburgh, for Lieutenant Governor and George George Angelo, Bradford, for Congress, 15th district.

The nomination papers were presented at the State Election Bureau on the last day for filing such papers. The bureau refused to accept them on the ground they were presented two minutes after the official closing time of the office.

RADIO

New York, July 13 (AP)—When Sing It Again, CBS giveaway, adds television it will do it differently than the competitive Stop The Music of ABC. That program has separate versions, radio Sunday nights and TV Thursday nights.

Sing It will go on both mediums simultaneously, retaining its present Saturday night schedule. The switchover is scheduled for early in the fall upon the return of the Ken Murray TV show, which is to retain 8 to 9. The new Frank Sinatra program is being projected for the next hour, with Sing It to follow.

Submits Low Bid For College Dorm

Harrisburg, July 13 (AP)—The General State Authority today received a low bid of $279,511 from Earl L. Cump, Chambersburg contractor, for general construction of a new auditorium at the Shippensburg State Teachers college.

The new auditorium, to seat 790 students, will replace an unsafe assembly room now located on the second floor of the main building at the college.

Meanwhile, the Department of Property and Supplies issued a call for bids July 26 for alterations and additions to Horton Hall, the girl's dormitory building at the college.

CONGRESSMAN MAKES DEMAND FOR ATOM BOMB USE IN KOREA

Washington, July 13 (P) — Congressional demands for threatening the Korean Communists with the bomb and for calling up the National Guard served today as an index to the growing seriousness with which lawmakers are treating the world situation.

Members of the House applauded yesterday when Rep. Bentsen (D-Tex.) said that Mr. Truman should give the Communists one week to get out of southern Korea. If they refuse, he said, the President should then supply their commander with a "named list of principal North Korean cities which would be subjected to atomic attacks by our Air Corps."

Another Texas Democrat, Senator Lyndon Johnson, raised the proposal for immediately calling into active service more than 800,000 National Guardsmen and reservists to stiffen the battle in Korea.

"Going to Do This Anyway" Johnson made his proposal in a Senate speech yesterday, and followed it up by telling a reporter: "We are going to be forced to do this anyway in time and the sooner the better. Unless we move quickly here is a chance that our boys will be pushed clear out of Korea."

Senator Brewster (R-Me.) proposed that it be left up to General MacArthur whether to use atomic bombs on the Communists. He offered this idea of his own.

"The Communists should understand that we are not spending billions for bombs out of scientific curiosity. Presumably they are designed to save the lives of American boys."

Atomic Attack Possible Tracy S. Voorhees, former under secretary of the Army, told a House committee that an atomic attack on the United States itself is now "more than a possibility." He said that if an attack does come, it will doubtless be a big one aimed at industrial centers.

Senator Humphrey (D-Minn.), a down-the-line backer of the Truman "Fair Deal" domestic program, raised some questions about the billions Congress has voted for preparedness. He said:

"I want to know what happened to all that money. I want to know why the delays now? Why the delay in getting our fleet out of mothballs?"

Allenberry Troupe Presenting Comedy

"Heaven Can Wait," a comedy, is playing this week at the Allenberry Playhouse, Boiling Springs. However, it is a different kind of comedy that Director Richard North Gage's troupe is offering. Instead of farce, a delightful fantasy provides a memorable evening's entertainment.

"Heaven Can Wait," which was done in the movies under the title, "Here Comes Mr. Jordan," deals with the confusion, consternation and comedy situations that arise when a Heavenly Messenger brings in the wrong person and Mr. Jordan, a Heavenly-wise man, interchanges the bodies of a prize-fighter and a Wall Street tycoon.

Robert DeCost, Allenberry's leading man, plays the role of Joe Pendleton, the fighter, with David Brubaker as the soft-spoken Mr. Jordan. His one-way conversations with Joe make for hilarious fun.

Sanatorium Owner Faces Damage Suits

Philadelphia, July 13 (P) — Two damage suits, each for $100,000, have been filed against Roland Randall, owner of the Belle Vista Sanatorium where 10 inmates died in a fire March 29.

The suits were filed in U. S. District court yesterday. They allege "careless and negligence of the defendant, his agents and servants." One suit was filed by Anna DeCristoforo, Collingswood, N. J., as administratrix of the estate of Nicholas Termini. The other was filed by Henry L. Costenbader, Mt. Ephraim, N. J., as administrator of the estate of his brother, Frank Termini and Costenbader were among the 10 who died in the fire.

In a speech for the House, Gavin said that even if Italy and Spain were permitted to assist in the defense of Europe the number of West European divisions would be "woefully short."

ISOLATION OF SOVIET NATIONS IS URGED AGAIN

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst
Former President Herbert Hoover has returned to his advocacy of the scrapping of the United Nations organization and the establishment of a new one with the Communist countries shut out.

He first broached this idea in a speech last April 27 in New York. His new approach to the subject was made in an address at the dedication of a memorial in Emporia, Kansas, to the late William Allen White, noted Emporia editor.

Mr. Hoover said his proposal was "unanimously and loudly denounced" by the State department and by U. N. officials. He declared that now Korean developments demonstrate the "inevitable necessity" of his program. He added that "today the mobilization of non-Communist nations free from Russian domination is slowly unfolding."

The non-Communist world, said

Mr. Hoover, is faced with three possible courses if it would have peace. They are:

1. "Shall it go to war to wipe communism from the face of the earth? My answer is 'no'."

2. "Should we return to the illusion that the Kremlin has changed its gospel and will work for world peace through the United Nations?"

That would seem futile."

Why would it be futile? Because one of the cardinal tenets of communism is that the ideology must be spread by revolutionary force. The establishment of a Red government must be accompanied by an upheaval, to impress the proletariat.

3. "Shall we try to build the United Nations so as to confine communism to the peoples already enslaved."

MORE PRESSURE FOR CONTROLS OVER MANPOWER

Washington, July 13 (AP)—Well-placed officials today reported growing pressure on the administration to seek at least limited control powers over industry to help arm the country for the fighting in Korea.

The said no specific plan yet has reached President Truman to their knowledge, nor has there been any decision on the seeking of emergency powers from Congress.

They said they expected the whole question of home-front mobilization to be placed before tomorrow's cabinet meeting. One official said there would be a "top to bottom" survey.

Like In World War II
Some administration officials were reported to favor an early White House request for powers comparable to those of World War II, under which automobile assembly lines could be converted to tanks and guns, and radio and television plants to radar equipment.

Foremost responsibility for advising Mr. Truman rests on two men, Secretary of Defense Johnson and Chairman W. Stuart Symington of the National Security Resources Board (NSRB). The latter agency is responsible for industrial mobilization planning; its general position was reported to be as follows:

1. NSRB is rounding out a complete program of emergency powers but has not yet presented such a program of price, wage and manpower controls and materials allocation to Mr. Truman.

2. NSRB has received from the White House no request for a program of limited controls, such as a voluntary system of rationing steel or other currently tight materials.

More Drastic Demands

3. The mobilization agency, as a general policy, opposes "limited" or piecemeal control measures on grounds that World War II experience showed them to be unworkable.

The major pressure so far, officials said, has come from industry and from Congress members.

With the arrival of increasingly pessimistic reports from the Korean front, there has been growing sentiment for much more drastic measures. However, the advocates of a quick plunge into home-front mobilization apparently are less numerous than those who feel that action should be delayed until the needs of the armed forces become more clear.

Washington, July 13 (AP)—Harold E. Stassen has charged the bill to cut excise taxes embodies an attempt by the Treasury department "to bring American colleges and universities under control of the federal government." The University of Pennsylvania president heatedly assailed a proposal in the House-approved bill to apply regular corporation tax rates to unrelated business operations by educational institutions.

Harrisburg, July 13 (AP)—A sharp reduction in monthly rentals was offered in a new bid submitted to the state Planning Board for construction of a 35-unit housing project in nearby New Cumberland. Guy E. Shelley, of Harrisburg, whose earlier bid was rejected by the board yesterday, submitted a plan under which rentals would average $55.50 a month. The previous average was $66.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., July 13 (AP)—A million dollar promotional campaign for the next 12 months—the largest program ever sponsored by the anthracite industry—was announced today by the Anthracite Institute. In addition, the institute said, it-

He suggests keeping the calves blanketed, trimming their feet, and teaching the calves to lead by practicing every day.

Running Water Helps—Water under pressure on the farm saves time and labor, reminds N. H. Wooding, extension agricultural engineering specialist of the Pennsylvania State college. SEN. MARTIN IS VFW SPEAKER

Harrisburg, July 13 (AP)—Senator Edward Martin declared today that persons who criticize the American form of government lack the courage to migrate to the country of their choice.

They are not "courageous or honest enough to leave this country and become citizens of a nation practicing the Godless philosophy they advocate," the Pennsylvania Republican asserted.

Martin told the opening of the 31st annual encampment of the state Veterans of Foreign Wars that communistic influence working within America today is more to be feared than actual warfare.

"It must be destroyed or it will destroy all that you fought to preserve," Martin warned the 3,000 VFW delegates.

"Personally," he emphasized, "I do not fear the destruction of America by an outside foe. The United States can out-produce, out-work and out-fight the ground forces, the air, the tanks, the bombs and the fleets of any country in the world."

But, he added, the evils of disloyalty, apathy and dishonesty can eventually "so weaken us that we will not be in a position to fight for our cause and the defense of American ideals."

Hundreds of early arrivals poured into Harrisburg early today for the three-day convention. Flags and gay bunting bedecked the capital city's downtown streets in welcome to the visiting veterans. An impressive memorial service highlighted the formal opening of the convention with Lt. Col. John P. Smeltzer, of Muddy Creek, principal speaker.

PEARL HARBORS FACE AMERICA AROUND WORLD, DUFF ASSERTS

Philadelphia, July 13 (AP)—America is faced with potential Pearl Harbors all over the world while she fights a war in Korea because she has not been sufficiently cognizant of her danger, Gov. James H. Duff told the 11th biennial conference of the Pennsylvania lodge, Fraternal Order of Police.

Duff said last night the police are this country's first line of home defense "until organized society can rise up and put down those who are more interested in a foreign country than in their own."

The lodge reflected all its officers for another two-year term. Of the Korean war, Duff said, "This country has taken on something that will lead no one knows where. Whether it will develop into the third world war, no one knows either. We are opposed by a nation acting by remote control."

Adopt Resolution
Duff said Adolf Hitler boasted in his book, "Mein Kampf," about conquering the world and he plunged the United States into a war "in which we lost more men and more resources than at any other time in our history."

Josef Stalin also has written a book, "Reflections On Leninism," in which he states that communism and democracy cannot exist together. The F.O.P. unanimously passed a resolution to oppose at the next session of the state legislature what it termed a section of the state parole law which freed 50 felons from jail as the result of a supreme court decision.

Its attorney, Samuel Gorson, said the high court interpreted the law as giving credit to ex-convicts on parole for adherence to parole laws and making them subject to return to prison for only the length of time remaining after a violation.

Elect Officers
Previously a person on five-year parole who violated his parole after four years was returned to serve his complete term, Gorson said. The supreme court decision held that such a man had only to serve the one year remaining in his parole sentence. Gordon added, saying: "We are very anxious to have the law changed because 12 police officers have been killed in this state by parole violators."

Delegates to the five-day conference reflected: Frederick W. McCallum, Philadelphia, president; James C. Dougherty, Pittsburgh, vice president; William L. Doll, Reading, secretary; Fred W. Carpenter, Lebanon, financial secretary; John D. Coleman, Harrisburg, recording secretary, and Gorson.

SPECULATES ON WHERE GRIM U.S. ROAD MAY LEAD

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, July 13 (AP)—We are walking down a road that gets grimmer every day. And as we go, the mood of the people gets grimmer.

The support of President Truman's decision to act at last with force against communism—if only in Korea—was a clear indication of how the people felt.

They had watched communism spread, flex its muscles, gobble countries and begin to bully the world.

Few Americans must have had any doubts over the past few years that communism, unless stopped, would try to gobble us, too.

We Talked And Prepared
Until this country stepped into Korea, we had listened to the mounting warnings about Russia. But until Korea, our actions were limited to preparations—of a kind—and to talk of preparations against what Russia might do.

And as we talked and prepared—in a kind of way—we knew that time was on the side of the Russians, that in a few years they'd be enormously better prepared than now, and better supplied with atom bombs.

And then suddenly things began to happen, things which opened up the underlying feeling of the masses of America.

Events Came Fast
First, there was the Communist invasion of South Korea. You must have heard what your neighbors said, and maybe you were one of those who said it, because I heard it from my crum-faced neighbors: "The President ought to step in. We're going to have to take a stand some time. Let's take it now. We've waited long enough." Then the decisions and the events began to tumble over one another.

Now it's possible that the National Guard may be called into service. And maybe the Reserves will be called up.

If that happens, it will mean pulling men away from their families, shifting homes, and it almost certainly will mean turning more and more of American industry to war production.

Where Will It End?
Then there are other steps which would follow if we got on a real war footing—general mobilization.

But the point is: If we really move from this point—because of the Korean trouble—into big military preparation and mobilization, where will it end?

If we win in Korea in a couple of months but have moved close to a war footing, will the people suddenly want to return to a pre-Korean peacetime footing?

Suppose Another Crisis
And suppose another crisis arose somewhere else after a few more months and, in the meantime, we had drifted back toward a peace-

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

As we get older, stress and strain, over-exertion, excessive smoking or exposure to cold sometimes slows down kidney function. This may lead many folks to complain of nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness. Getting up nights or frequent passages may result from minor bladder irritations due to cold, dampness or dietary indiscretions.

If your discomforts are due to these causes, don't wait. Try Dean's Pills, a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. While these symptoms may often otherwise occur, it's amazing how many times Dean's give happy relief—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Dean's Pills today!

YANKEES FACE
BIG HANDICAP
IN KOREA NOW

By DeWITT MACKENZIE
(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

Most of us, I imagine, are reading the war-news from Korea with mixed emotions—with vast pride in the gallant job being done by our boys against tremendous odds, but with grave anxiety over how long it may take to provide sufficient troops and equipment to overcome those odds.

We are agreed, I hope (for if we aren't, we ought to be), that this is exactly the situation which we should expect in this early stage of the operation. Under huge handicap we are undertaking to counter the planned aggression of a powerful and well-trained army fully equipped with up-to-date weapons by the Russians.

Therefore, being forewarned, we accept with regret but understanding resignation when we are told that the North Korean Communists have flung the American line back in the strategic Kum river region of South Korea. It was a blow of great strength, powered by an estimated 80 Russian-made tanks, some of which were 60-ton giants.

Stabilizing Operation

Korean maps are a bit confusing, I'm afraid. But we can sum up the position roughly by pointing out that the Kum river has been the Yanks' major defense line north of the city of Taejon—central South Korea—which has been a U.S. Field headquarters. General MacArthur gave us a useful interpretation in his communique yesterday, when he said:

"American forces—are continuing their action to stabilize the situation by stopping the North Korean offensive above the Kum river."

That's it—a stabilizing operation. And that's the sort of thing which we must expect to continue for a long time while we are mobilizing military strength and getting it onto the fighting front in Korea. Our men will meet with many crises like the present one while reinforcements and equipment are being rushed from distant points to South Korea.

"Give Us The Stuff"

For that reason the next few weeks are likely to be days of heroic struggle against great odds for our

ELKS TO INSTALL
KYLE AT MIAMI

Miami, Fla., July 13 (P)—The nation's Elks planned to install Joseph B. Kyle of Gary, Ind., as grand exalted ruler today and then wind up their 86th annual convention.

Kyle and other new officers of the Grand Lodge will be installed at a fighting men. The odds are a foregone conclusion right now, but we have a right to expect that they will decrease steadily and not present a repetition of the experience of the lost U. S. battalion in the fighting last week-end. You may recall how the combat-fatigued lieutenant summed the position up after his contingent battled until its ammunition was exhausted and then retreated:

"Ten to one is good odds. But we can't take 100 to one odds—without ammunition. x x x Just give us the stuff."

Well, in the next few weeks, while additional troops and "the stuff" are arriving in South Korea, we are going to encounter some tough going. However, we must accept this as the natural trend at this stage—a trend which our military chiefs expect will improve progressively until the tide turns and we sweep on to victory.

brief business session before adjournment at noon.

That done, 12,000 delegates and their families will start the long trek home, many going by way of Havana, Cuba, and other points of interest.

The bulk of the convention's business was completed yesterday with impressive memorial services for 13,271 members who died during the year.

The delegates also pledged more than $1,000,000 a year for national defense and the welfare of the nation "if the occasion requires."

Vet Visits 280 Former Buddies

Doylstown, Pa., July 13 (P)—Gunther (Joe) Pretsch of nearby Blooming Glen is satisfied today that he visited his wartime buddies—all 280 of them. He left home 28 months ago in a battered army jeep.

To talk with 280 of the men who had served with him in Europe, Pretsch traveled 58,000 miles into 39 states, Canada and Mexico.

Pretsch said he picked apples, drove trucks, cooked, sold fishing equipment, cantaloupes and watermelons and shoveled 80 tons of salt to help defray expenses.

He estimated the visits cost nearly $4,000.

The change from horse to tractor has released about 55,000,000 acres of American farmland to use for food crops.
